

Alicia Barnette

SVP, Care Planning

An Appalachian State and Gardner-Webb alumna, Alecia is a national speaker with over 20 years of longterm care (LTC) experience, highlighted by her Certification for Long-Term Care (CLTC).

Alecia began working as the Health Marketing Director at The Insurance Center in Charlotte, NC in 1995. Three years later, The Insurance Center and Financial Independence Group, Inc. merged; overseeing the entire transition and bringing our health insurance business to unprecedented heights. Now the Vice President in the LTC department, Alecia's 20+ years of experience is evident to advisors across the country.

Specializing in providing asset-based LTC case designs to highly successful advisors, Alecia's main purpose is to assist advisors in protecting their clients and their client's families from the physical and emotional consequences of unexpected care needs.

Alecia's use of holistic approaches and strong ethics – along with her desire to grow and solid commitment – make her an invaluable asset to any financial advisor seeking LTC assistance.

When she's not helping advisors protect their clients, you can find Alecia running, traveling, or boating on Lake Norman.
